

- 12) In 4Sp you win the opening Hrt lead.
 There are options of course.
 A good player will play to guarantee 10 tricks.
 Paradoxically a lesser light might make as many as 13 tricks.
 Which are you ?

- 14) You lead the 10 diamonds against 4Sp and partner wins with the Ace.
 She switches to the 7 Hrt. Which you win. Now what's that 7 Hrts all about?
 Is it a low card suggesting she has an honour (in which case you should return the lead) or is top of nothing in which case you ought to switch again. ?
